

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

KEITH HOBBS, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

COMMONWEALTH SERVICING
GROUP, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company, and DMB FINANCIAL,
LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability
company,

Defendants.

Case No. 19-cv-10408-NMG

JOINT MOTION FOR COUNSEL TO APPEAR TELEPHONICALLY AT SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

Plaintiff Keith Hobbs and Defendants Commonwealth Servicing Group, LLC and DMB Financial LLC (“Defendants” or “Commonwealth”) being in agreement, respectfully request that the Court permit counsel for the Parties to appear telephonically at the Scheduling Conference scheduled for June 19, 2019. The grounds for the relief are set forth below.

1. Counsel for Plaintiff, Woodrow & Peluso, LLC, work and reside in Denver, Colorado. Thus, significant expense would be saved if counsel were permitted to appear telephonically at the Scheduling Conference.

2. Counsel for Defendant, Daniel Ruggiero, will be in Massachusetts on June 19, 2019. However, he will have to travel six hours round trip to attend the Scheduling Conference. Thus, significant time and expense would be saved if counsel were permitted to appear telephonically at the Scheduling Conference.

The Parties therefore respectfully request that the Court permit their counsel to appear telephonically at Scheduling Conference on June 19, 2019.
